WHO'S JULIETTE?

The Hotel & Spa La Belle Juliette pays homage to Juliette Récamier, 19th century muse and important figure in the Parisian literary salons of the day.

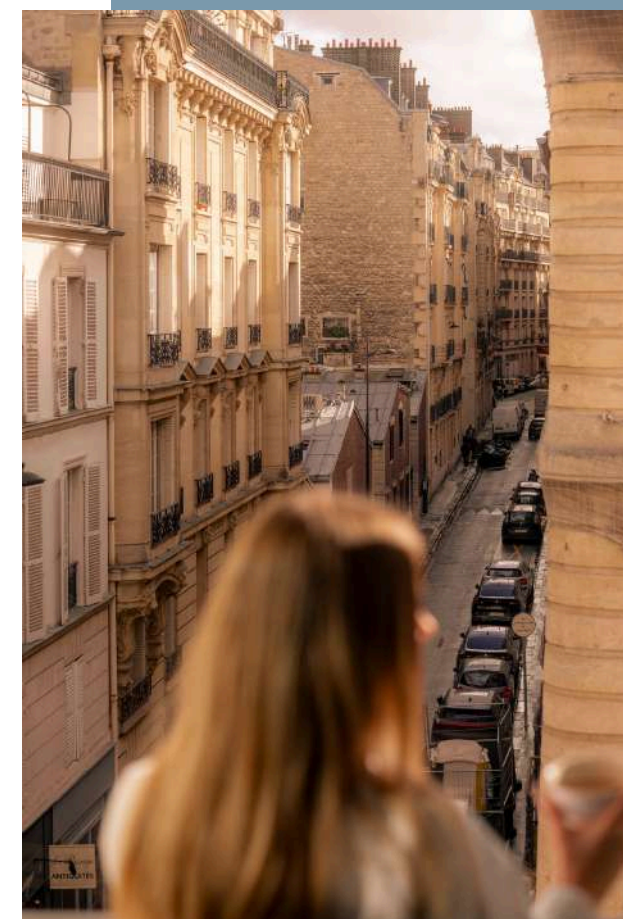

From the young age of 20, Juliette brought together the intelligentsia of her time, including the writer and politician Chateaubriand, who went on to be the grande passion of her life.

The hotel tells her story through its elegant and poetic interior design, mixing classic and modern. The 45 unique rooms evoke important moments in Juliette's life through the carefully chosen colours and styles. Vintage objects, rare books, portraits and souvenirs immerse visitors in her world. Each floor of the hotel reveals a theme inspired by this fascinating woman. It's a place rich in history, where romanticism meets art de vivre.

The experience continues at our spa, a place of peace where the gentle lapping of water invites you to relax. Our sweet little pool with massaging water jets and a counter-current for swimming offers a moment of wellbeing, while the warmth of our steam bath will envelop the body and calm the mind. Personalised massages can be given upon request in our massage rooms, in partnership with beauty brand Fleur's, for a regenerating sensorial voyage.
